

An-Naml [27:26]

(Allah)!- there is no god but He!- Lord of the Throne
Supreme!

MUHAMMAD HUSAIN TABA TABAI (AR)

Allah! None has the right to be worshipped but He, the Lord of the Supreme Throne.

This refers to the description given by the hoopoe and is about that which has already been dealt in the previous verses. This is the expression of the great Truth. This is why it first says, None has the right to be worshipped but He and then goes on to speak about the Supreme Throne to say that all arrangements in this world revert to God. This is because the station of the Supreme Throne is from where all the commands are revealed.

This, Lord of the Supreme Throne has other connotations and that is the description that the birds give about the Queen of Saba and her great throne. The bird may have desired that Sulaiman should order his people to bring that throne to him. He gave this order so that the Queen of Saba may recognize the glory of God and be subservient to Him to with due humility.

MIR AHMED ALI (AR)

Arsh Verse 13